

Technology Programs & Classes

September/October 2021

BRING YOUR OWN DEVICE

Each of these are two-part classes. Learn to navigate the home screen, manage apps, devices settings, and browse the internet. Must attend both sessions. Bring your devices, Apple ID/Google Play account login, and password. Limit of 10 participants per class.

Android Basics

Thursdays, Sept. 16 & 23, 10:30 a.m.–noon

iPhone/ iPad Basics

Tuesdays, Sept. 21 & 28, 10:30 a.m.–noon

Features: Camera and Photos

Learn how to take pictures with your phone or tablet, add filters or effects, and share them.

Android

Tuesday, Oct. 5, 5:30–7 p.m.

iPhone

Wednesday, Oct. 13, 5:30–7 p.m.

---

Cutting the Cable Cord

Wednesday, Sept. 22, 1–2:30 p.m.

Find out about free and subscription streaming services, including Pluto TV, Hoopla, Netflix, and Sling TV.

Coding Games with Scratch

Tuesday, Sept. 28, 4–5 p.m.

Code video games using MIT's free online Scratch software.
Grades 4-6.

Introduction to Computers

Wednesdays, Oct. 13–Nov. 24, 10–11:30 a.m.

Registration opens Wednesday, Sept. 15.

Led by People's Resource Center. Class content is sequential, and registration requires a 7-week commitment. Limit of 10 participants. Learn to use Windows 10 and introduce the components of a computer including:

- How to use a mouse
- Windows desktop
- Introduction to applications
- Files & folders
- Using the Internet

---

WE CAN'T WAIT FOR YOU TO JOIN US AT A LIBRARY PROGRAM!

Registration is required in advance. Sign up for programs at calendar.ippl.info.

Please note the library's current mask policy at ippl.info/covid19.

Explore, connect, and be inspired.

ippl.info • 630/887-8760